(BALTIMORE, MD) – Local residents and other interested members of the public are invited to comment on a proposal by Halo Betterton, LLC to construct a 5.0 MW solar project in Kent County. The virtual hearing will take place on Tuesday, September 9, 2025 at 7 p.m. before Public Utility Law Judge Christine L. Burke. This hearing was rescheduled from August 12.

In April 2025, Halo Betterton applied to the Maryland Public Service Commission for what is known as a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity (CPCN), which grants an applicant the authority to construct an energy generating station in Maryland. According to the application, the developer proposes to build the project, intended as part of Maryland’s community solar program, on a 30-acre site at Howell Point Road and Still Pond-Betterton Road in the town of Betterton.

In addition to taking comments from the public, the hearing will include a presentation by the applicant, brief statements by the parties, including the Power Plant Research Program of the Maryland Department of Natural Resources, and the Commission’s Technical Staff, as to their respective roles in the case.

Those who would like to speak at the hearing must sign up (by September 8, 2025) through the Calendly app on the Commission’s website, www.psc.state.md.us:

- Under ‘Featured Topics’ on the right side of the webpage, click on ‘Public Comment Hearing Sign Up’;

Comments sent by mail should be addressed to: Jamie Bergin, Chief Clerk, Maryland Public Service Commission, William Donald Schaefer Tower, 6 St. Paul Street, 16th Floor, Baltimore, MD 21202. So that they are noted in the proper case file, all comments should reference Case No. 9786.
